

Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, You Made Life Good Again

I'm always looking for a minute that we can steal cause I need more of how you make me feel I used to be the king of wasted time cause it made no difference till I made you mine now I wake up in the morning with a smile on my face Can't get enough of the human race ain't loved like this since I can't remember when baby you made life good again oh yeah darlin you made life good again I like the way you talk and the way you look when it comes to loving you wrote the book cause when you kiss me . . . tell me what part of heaven did you come from now i wake up in the morning with a smile on my face ain't loved like this since i can't remember when baby you made life good again oh yeah darlin you made life good again I was lonely, oh so lonely v
