

Nixons, Drama Queen

Here she comes again
Must be your favorite sin
Tell me something anything
Where you been?

Why should I be the last to know
Wrapped around my stereo
I guess I'm wrong for hanging with you
I just wanted to hear

You're the loudest thing
I will hear you say
You're singing

Say you did bum the mellow
Whatever that means today
She got new pumps, a porsche
Silk covered pillows, a beautiful kind of pain
That just changes everything
Here's your good damned diamond ring
I guess I'm wrong for hanging with you
But I just wanted to hear

You're the loudest thing
I will hear you say
You're singing
You're the loudest thing
I will hear you say
You're singing

When it comes to push you push
You take the cake baby
You push

You're the loudest thing
I will hear you say
You're singing
You're the loudest thing
I will hear you say
You're the loudest thing
