

Nixons, Smile

I'm the one you've always dreamed of,
but could never touch
Say that I don't do anything for you, then I do too much.
Can you see my halo? My halo is wearing thin.
Can you feel the hollow? Somewhere sucks me in.
Move into your own dimensia,
I bounce the world upon my knee
Roll away the stone in your mind, Tell me what you see
Can you see my halo? My halo is fading fast
Can you feel the hell? Burns me somewhere in my past
We don't laugh, we don't cry, we don't even wonder why
We don't give, we don't take, we don't give into your hate
We're no god, we're no son, we're no holy spirit
We don't smile, but we don't hate you
I'm the one you've always dreamed of,
Never thought to see it through
This is what you want me to be, what you want me to be,
We don't smile - we don't hate you
Give into your hate
We don't laugh, we don't cry, we don't even wonder why
We don't give, we don't take, we don't give into your hate
We're no god, we're no son, we're no holy spirit
We don't smile, but we don't hate you
We don't laugh, we don't cry, we don't even wonder why
We don't give, we don't take, we don't give into your hate
We're no god, we're no son, we're no holy spirit
We don't smile, but we don't hate you
We don't laugh, we don't hate you
We don't call, we don't hate you
