Nkotb, Never Gonna Fall In Love Again

(Rap:)Never gonna fall in love again, never gonna fall in love again, never gonna fall in love again, never gonna fall in love again.

You said you'd never ever try to break my heart,
you told a lie, you tore my love apart.
You said you've always wanted someone just like me,
you let me down, baby, you set me free.
Whether it's wrong, whether it's right, won't take me through the night, told me that you loved me so and you'd never let me go.
You played the game you're not the same, I never thought you'd ever change, if it's got to be this way I'm never gonna fall in love.
Never gonna fall in love again, never gonna fall in love again, never gonna fall in love again, never gonna fall in love.
Never gonna fall in love again, never gonna fall in love again, never gonna fall in love again, never gonna fall in love. (Spoken:) Break one!

When I heard this crazy stuff about this other guy,
I didn't believe it, had to see it in my eyes.
When I saw you and him, you passed me by,
he's not your friend, he's the other guy.
Whether...
Break two!

(Rap:) I'm never gonna fall 'cause I fell, loving you for me was like hell.
How could you play me like a champ, a tramp, a cramp?
Girl, you did me worse than a food stamp.
You told me I could trust you, if I didn't I would crush you, but never thought that one day I'd bust you walking in the sand hand in hand with another man
I know your game plan and now I understand love so deep is like sleep and it will leave you blind but I see how you're living so baby next time what'cha gonna do now that the tables are turned around I'm living swell and now you wanna be down Step off 'cause baby I've learned if you're messing with fire then you're gonna get burned
You still look dope but a dope I'm not
I can't get with you 'cause you're too hot

Never gonna ... (repeat ad lib & fade)
