Ayy, man

Everybody stand up if you ever had your back up against the wall (d.a. got that dope)

And had to fight back

This yo' anthem (yeah)

My view from the top of the moon (space)

I can see the whole world sittin' in my hand, amazin' view (let's go)

We finna break the rules (let's go)

And we gon' make 'em too (make 'em too)

I can't fall or slip, I gotta stand tall, that's what a leader do (a leader do)

Follow me, I'm leadin' you (one, two, three, let's go)

Ayy, we finna turn up

Crank up the heat in here, they finna burn up

Told 'em I'm comin', I'm here

Tell 'em they time up

I said it once, I'ma say it again, "This here be my year" (this here be my year)

I ain't gon' show no fear

I know that I'm built, too equipped for what God want me to do

I'm number one, not the two

It ain't no way I'ma lose (way I'ma lose)

I hate to struggle, but it made me harder (made me harder)

I made it far, but I wanna go farther (wanna go farther)

This not for me, this for my son and my daughter

My family tree in that order (in that order)

I'm the chosen one, I'm wearin' that jacket (wearin' that jacket)

I was down, now I'm up

Now I was the underdog, now look who be laughin'

I'm better than who you gassin', and

And told 'em, "Crown me"

My ring finger got a rock on it, rock on it

And told 'em, "Crown me"

My ring finger got a rock on it, rock on it, rock on it

Threw dirt on my name, tried to bury me (bury me)

Threw salt on me like they was seasoning

Now, this my season

Weathered every storm that was in my way

But promise you, it wasn't easy (wasn't easy)

Took some patience and grievin'

I was believin' when no one believe me (hey, hey, hey, hey)

I was believin' when no one believe me (let's go)

Now they got to see me from the nose bleed or the front row

I don't care what seat

Dreams to reality, I'm too real for reality TV

Remember I was piss poor, now I'm writin' this song from a balcony

Told 'em, "Watch out for me"

But they ain't see me comin', now they road kill (road kill)

Know what long nights on that road feel like

Keep pushin', even though we don't feel right (it don't feel right)

Blood, sweat, and tears just to live life

Talked to God even when I didn't see light (didn't see light)

Still talk to him when it got bright

Dark days, but made for the spotlight

We paid, now mama can sleep tight

Champions (champions), the champions (champions, told 'em crown me)

Ayy, we gon' ball never fall, the champions (mm-hmm)

The champions (champions), the champions (champions)

Ayy, we gon' ball never fall, I put my head up
And told 'em, "Crown me"
My ring finger got a rock on it, rock on it
I put my head up
And told 'em, "Crown me"
My ring finger got a rock on it, rock on it, rock on it

So we put our head up
Ring finger got a rock on it, rock on it, rock on it
So we put our head up (ayy, yeah-ah)
Ring finger got a rock on it, rock on it, rock on it
So we put our head up
We gon' ball, never fall
Got a rock on it, rock on it
