

No Address, Mother Sunday

There are places that I've been to places part of me Places that I've left and I don't remember them

There are things I want to tell you secrets that I keep Things I've got to tell you but they're better left unsaid

People that I talk to think they're wasting time think that they are trapped but I know that's just a lie

Pull your candle in closer Put your hand above the flame Smash your glass on the table

Now talk about love

Well there's love I can remember love not far away Lovers I remember

Pictures I've forgotten pictures part of me Pictures on the wall
all get put away

Let's stop all of this talking just sit and take it in Stop or I am walking
