

No Assembly Required, I Hate

rise

i won't have bitching or crying for you have all been deceived you cannot stay still or function you are a living disease yeah, you're killing millions of people yeah, you're killing millions with evil the time for judgment is here; repent and fear, your life, your pride will fade this time

no time for praying or waiting for you will never be saved, bitch i'm fucking sick of your whining you are only a slave yeah, you're breaking, feeling defeat? yeah, your killing millions has ceased you'll cease to be alive this time again, don't move, too late you're dead, the end i hate your reasons for living i hate your reasons for breathing now get down

bite the curb when you smile, and be thankful feel the force of this hit deep inside you you can't escape this unless you do as i do face the flames, bitch, you'll burn deep inside too it's such a shame that you'll break when you're bleeding you'll try to blame everything instead of changing we have won, all is done we still fucking run this piece of shit
the mega city

...and all will
