

No Assembly Required, My Bleeding Eyes

i dont give a fuck about all you kids and all the shit you put on me for living the way i live i am so disgusted with all your faces i am feeling power now that you hate me feed my ego with your brainless teasing ways make me want this more then you could ever see i cant wait for the day i get to see you act like you were close to me and brag to all your friends what dont you not get from this is what it is dont you know that i'm the shit and i've always been i am gonna shove this in your face today maybe then you'll respect all that nar has made

my bleeding eyes
my bleeding eyes

you will respect
my bleeding eyes
you will respect
my bleeding eyes

you will respect
you will respect
you will respect
you will respect
