

No Bragging Rights, Because You Believe In Som

We found our fight, We found our fight
Be warned be scared now say your prayers. Now say youre p
Throwing bricks at the moon But falling oh so short, Ill find a way to break the stars,
Im so sick of this thing gravity, Im sick of them taunting me, The freedom of breaking ceilings,
You dont have limitations when you see no boundaries, All you see is open fields for the taking,
You dont have restraints when you dont know your limits, All you see is open skies expose the truth
You have a brain so use it, you have a voice so lets hear it, You lost sight, so get focused, you lost
When truth harassed your lips, it gave you the strength to press on, Youre a big kid now so act like Falling in sacred potholes because thats all they are, Just holding cells, though Im jealous of their p Screaming at the top of my lungs, I wont be drowned out forever, frail words/promises provoked a change in me be warned, be scared the advent of truth is near.
We found our fight expose the truth take your faith to the next step.
Were gonna burn, were gonna burn for this, As flames long for flesh, they will have tested your faith
