

No Cash, Annihilation Of The Nation

i can only take so much of all the shit life throws at me soon i'm gonna go insane and kill you all and then kill me i hate to wake up in the morning my fking life is so goddam boring apathy has taken the best of me now sickness takes the rest of me annihilate the church and state,destroy everything you hate / kill the cops and burn the school,prove to them you ain't no fool / i am always so burnt out/ i'll never get up off my ass i'll never find a fking job/ i'm content being a lazy slob one day i will steal a gun/ go to town and have some fun shoot a couple hundred cops/ KILL KILL KILL 'til the day is done

fight the man, steal the town, bring the fking system down

(insert STZA)-

so i came home to find my son, he shot himself with daddy's gun instead my head a panic shape, cause he always rocked the no-cash tape i called the church and called the state i told them of annihilate, the judge said that my ship was sank, so, i cried all the way down to the bank

kill the cops and burn the school, proove to them you ain't no fool annihilate the church and state, destroy everything you hate kill em all, one by one, when they're DEAD, you have won
