

No Doctors, Rumble Ring

Though you wore the turtle shell,
You now adore the ringing bell,
Four fists will destroy the list of
Places where you think to dwell,

And you're ready to fight,
(rumble ring)
Every single night,
(rumble ring)
When it's time to sing,
(rumble ring)
In a rumble ring,
(rumble ring)
Pool of blood on the floor,
(rumble ring)
And they're begging for more,
(rumble ring)
But you're ready to fight,
(rumble ring)
In a rumble ring!

Clutch the sound of ocean in your
Palm before unleashing hell,
Monkey carry mountain to your side
Before your curtain fell,

And you're ready to fight,
(rumble ring)
Every single night,
(rumble ring)
When it's time to sing,
(rumble ring)
In a rumble ring,
(rumble ring)
Pool of blood on the floor,
(rumble ring)
And they're begging for more,
(rumble ring)
But you're ready to fight,
(rumble ring)
In a rumble ring!
