

No Fun At All, On My Way

I guess I'm on my way
No reason left to stay
Nobody to comfort me
In my loneliest time
Your love was all I had
So joyfull, never sad
I never could understand
Why you lost all your vitality

Now I'm loosing the things in life I desired
Loosing the things in life I desired, it gets me
Yeah, it finally gets me
On my knees

I guess I'm on my way
Got nothing more to say
I finally gave away
Trying to get back that duality

Now I'm loosing the things in life I desired
Loosing the things in life I desired, it gets me
Yeah, it finally gets me
On my knees

Loosing the things in life I desired
Loosing the things in life I desired, it gets me
Yeah, it finally gets me
On my knees
