

No Fun At All, Sidewalk

What are you supposed to do Living (sitting) on your own where are you to go now when everybody's fighting (leaving) you yeah
You don't do anything but talking to the walls Open up your ears and listen to the things I wanna say I'm saying

You are (losing your conception)
You are falling out of line
