

No Innocent Victim, Degeneration

Something's lost
Maybe forever
In the attempt of more gain
You've done away with your honor
Whatever happened
To doing right because it's right
Not just when it's convenient
But even when you have to fight
Dignity, integrity
Things of the past
You have no more cares
As long as your wallet's fat
Numb to the downfall
Sedated by the wealth
Slave to the dollar
And you've brought it on yourself
Never looking what's in your heart
Just what's in your hand
Until it crumbles down
And then where will you stand
Degeneration the downfall begins
Degeneration your wealth's all you'll defend
Starting in your heart
Spreading like disease
New terms of morality
Is anything you please
