

No-Man, Animal Ghost

it's too late to go now it's too late to know there's food on the table there's dust on your soul and the fire in your breath

and the fire in your head turning inside

[chorus:]
animal ghost - silence your eyes animal ghost - sleepwalk in the light.

it's too hard to dream here it's too hard to think there's growth in the garden there's dirt in the sink and the love in your mouth

and the love in your heart drifting away

[chorus]

[chorus]
