

No man's land (Radio Free Roscoe), You belong

All the years that we cared, all the things that we shared
Birthday cakes, bad mistakes
Stolen bikes, open mikes
Sweet tarts, broken hearts
Punched your arm & no harm
Now these things start to fade to a very different shade
So dont look back you wont find me here
Ive moved on to another year
Dont pick me when we play choose
Cause thats one way you're gonna lose
You belong, you belong,
You belong to someone else
You belong, you belong,
You belong to someone else, not me!
So dont look back & expect to see
The vision you once knew of me
Turn aside, youre no longer mine
Move ahead, it's go time!
You belong, you belong,
You belong to someone else.
You belong, you belong,
You belong to someone else, not me!
You belong to someone else, not me!
