

No-Man, Things Change

you got so clever
you're leaving me behind you.
you say you're better
(you're leaving me behind).

I remember
when heaven's lips kissed your every word, I pretended
nothing you said could ever hurt.

you're leaving me behind you-
leaving me behind.
you're leaving me behind you - THINGS CHANGE
leaving me behind. THINGS CHANGE

you walk upon the dirt
and chocolate wrappers,
you're leaving me behind you.
you move across the bridge over the river-
leaving me behind.

"wherever you don't go,
I'll be by your side," you lied.
I hate the way things change.

you're leaving me behind you - THINGS CHANGE
leaving me behind. THINGS CHANGE
