

No Motiv, Empty

I don't understand
There is something so unclear
And I can't comprehend What's going on What's going on inside your head?
Is something wrong with me?
so I'll keep asking
do you like what you see?
this is all of me
so here I wait for you I'm not at all displeased (with you) eventually I'll be left here feeling empty again
I'm still so confused about the part where you said That you're in my way
There is no one that can give me inspiration like you And I'm still wondering why
so I'll keep asking
do you like what you see?
because this is all of me
so here I wait for you I'm not at all displeased
I'm not about to throw away all the hope I've gained today
I wish I knew a tune for you so I could sing away this gloom
All the tears I've held in pain should wash it all away
But I'm not really sure
So I'll keep asking
