No Motiv, Only You

I don't wanna go Don't want to waste this time I just want to stay with you and let the time fly by Can I ask for more? A little more for me I'm going to need it for The time that I will be away And I've forgotten everything Thinking more importantly Because I don't want to go I don't want to go I don't want to go I want to stay home with you So much for this time apart And I wish we could go back To how things used to be before What's the mileage now? A steady pace I see, because there's a part of me That hasn't been there for a while And I am hollow ... I am bare But I'll keep going with despair Because I just want to go I just want to go I just want to go I want to come home to you So much for this time apart And I wish we could go back To how things used to be before And I lost touch with myself And I'm sorry I hope we can work it out somehow again Never thought I could feel this hollow Never thought that the worst would follow Never wanted to see this side of me I never wanted it to be So much for this time apart And I wish we could go back To how things used to be before And I lost touch with myself And I'm sorry I hope we can work it out somehow again
