

No Motiv, Somewhere

Somewhere inside there is place that feels There is a place with no ideals
And somewhere inside there is a man that knows That there is hope for a crying world
How we people treat ourselves
And how we make our lives like a living hell Because somewhere inside there is a place that feels And somewhere inside there is a man that feels - yeah
there is someone inside
there is someone inside that's afraid of you
Some are on talk shows all day long With not a clue what's going on Go on thinking a certain way Ignorance is here to stay will they feel a change of pace?
will they see it a different way? well I sure hope there is change real soon Or any evolution take it's toll on you
