

No One, Nothing

I can feel it again
Let the games begin
Turn the lights down
Inviting the energy

Suddenly I can see
Something changing in me
Turn away all the pain
Inside me!

Nothing can take me
Away from my escape
It is my way
This is my way

Nothing can break me
Or take away the need
It is my fate
This is my fate

Yesterday I had died
With frustrations inside
Will I ever change
This part of me

In my mind
I have seen
This is not
Life for me

Took my pain
And I made it something

Nothing you could ever say
Could ever change me
Nothing you could ever take
Could ever break me
Nothing you could ever say
Could ever make me
Nothing you could ever take
Could ever make...

This is my fate
This is my fate
There is nothing
In my way
