

No Use For A Name, Hole

There's an oddity running down the stream
Everybody's buying those C.F.C's
As the story unwinds it just gets sadder
Cause every store is selling that extraneous matter
We have no tools to fix the hole in the sky
Told by the fools that you're the reason why
Paper or plastic, diesel or unleaded
It doesn't stop humanity from where it is headed
They always lie about it
But we always seem to find in the air (Just tell me why)
We always try to fight it
When mendaciously they hide it everywhere (Hole in the sky)
They always lie about it
But we always seem to find it in the air (Just tell me why)
And when you try to fight it
Just remember who decides it if you care (Hole in the sky)
