

No Use For A Name, Noitall

"No! That's wrong; I'm always right
I love to get in arguments, I love to fight
Of course I'm right, I'm never wrong."
He's as gullible, he played the fool all along
People like you should be punched
Punched right in the face!
Feeding us your lies
Gonna put you in your place
Smash your face, oh yeah!
You're such a fool
Still you keep your cool
And when you're proven wrong then you're not so strong.
I'm through with holding any trust in you
I should have known all along
Your made up truth was nothing but a con
