

No Warning, Too Much to Bare

I cant fucking take it.
It's burning me through.
With each passing day, it just gets worse.
I cant fucking stand it.
Gotta breakaway.
Nothing in common, except this simple hate.
No end in sight, I want to get out.
Pretending to care.
its making me sick!
How much do you think i know, I know enough.
Enough to know I want to get out.
Is this too much for you to do, make me lose my faith in you.
Now i fucking know, i want to get out.
