

Noa, Dance Of Hope

when Im feelin down
i do a little dance
beyond the wall of tears
there is a second chance.

in the city, in the meadow
in the village, in the park
on the highway, in the jungle
i wanna take your hand in mine.

when I am feelin sad
i sing a little song
beyond the wall of tears
nobodys right or wrong

i wanna take your hand in mine.

if our hands are tied we're gonna cut the rope together you and me dance the dance of hope!

i wanna take your hand in mine .
