Noa, Me

am just so: quiet A placid lake I am I love the serenity of routine, Babies' eyes, Francis Jeam In days gone by my spirit soared Wrapped in crimson it would fly At one with mountain tops The howling wind, the eagles cry But that was all in days gone by That was long ago Things change And no, I am just so