

Noah Kahan, Still

I don't, I don't, I don't want to say goodbye
I don't, I don't, I don't want to say goodbye

It only falls into place when you're falling to pieces
You find love that lasts a while 'till you lose the reasons
Saying God I'm alive
But the whole place is quiet
You miss something that you can't place but you can't deny it

Don't know whether you want a place in the coast or the country
You can't stay here it's hard to face and it feels so ugly
You light a fire inside yourself
Let it burn
Stare up at a starless sky and you say

It's like I'm still here with you
It's like I'm still here with you

I don't, I don't, I don't want to say goodbye

The past coming back with the light in the morning
Look down on myself like a patient in surgery
And I used to watch my mother move
Like God was in the room

It's a bottomless hole I've found out here with a trace of no one
Grab a past box of photos I rip myself open
I'm in bed and I'm wondering
If I'm callous but hoping
Can fix what is broken
When the words have been spoken

It's like I'm still here with you
It's like I'm still here with you

I don't, I don't, I don't want to say goodbye

It's like I'm still here with you
It's like I'm still here with you

I don't, I don't, I don't want to say goodbye

It's like I'm still here with you
It's like I'm still here with you

I don't, I don't, I don't want to say goodbye

I don't, I don't, I don't want to say
I don't, I don't, I don't want to say
I don't, I don't, I don't want to say goodbye

I don't, I don't, I don't want to say
I don't, I don't, I don't want to say
I don't, I don't, I don't want to say goodbye

It only falls into place when you're falling to pieces
You find love that lasts a while 'till you lose the reasons
Saying God I'm alive
But the whole place is quiet
You miss something that you can't place but you can't deny it
