

Nobody Famous, Go Hard

Go hard or go home, go home if your soft, if your scared, say your scared,
but you lost from the start,
and i ain't never met a winner
who ain't never had heart full throttle, red line, watch me rip it apart My hearts pumpin, legs shaking and my palms sweaty clutched fists and i'm focused so you know i'm ready i'm livin for this moment, i can't explain the rush i'm lovin all this pressure comin thru when i'm in the clutch i push it to the limit, i'm in this thing to win it all this work and dedication man i gotta get it i work my whole life just for this one moment i can't blow it i'm focused, i'm gonna win and yeah i know it its so picture perfect, in the end its worth cuz i'll be known as a legend who just emerged and surfaced and took over the circuit, leaving competitors nervous i'm in the winner circle i had to grind earn it i'm doin my thing you know who really be the baddest well known to all, super star status lets do it big, rip this thing apart, that's what it is, i be goin hard Go hard or go home, go home if your soft,
if your scared, say your scared,
but you lost from the start,
full throttle, red line, watch me rip it apart Watch out i'm comin thru, ima make it do what it do all my game and super cool, light years in front of you if your scared than quit now, best believe its goin down cuz i will abuse you, straight up misuse you i'm on my grizzle, on my grind, ima win, ima shine any place any time, i'm a beast, i ain't lyin i'm going full throttle, yeah its gettin serious i can do some things that will leave you all delirious its that real, i hope you know this i got my eyes on the prize, man i'm so focused livin life on the edge, i'm a renegade been doin this a long time and never have i been afraid i'm lookin at the finish line, i have a clear view i'm lookin at you far behind, right in my rear view don't get it twisted man, i can help you understand any place, every where i go, look i am the man Go hard or go home, go home if your soft,
if your scared, say your scared,
but you lost from the start,
full throttle, red line, watch me rip it apart
