

Noctiferia, Forebang

project
an image of a hightower standing just one of many backgrounds fills with blast flash weak winds blow through grey buildings now entangled in the net of paths with blurred ends there is a calm before the bang
ground shall shiver
disorder to deliver
towers shall fall
no means at all
towers shall fall...
no with fake foundation of lies can never reach the skies all ruins shall remain as nonsacred image of pain
there is a calm before the bang
ground shall shiver
no means at all
towers shall fall...
no
