

Noctiferia, So Devoid

slowly enter to mind control passing like a sharp blade swings by each passing it grows stronger as it rolls before the eyes unbidden anger grimaces appear so devoid what can you tell me fill me with more pieces of corruption you dare to step on my way what the hell is your expectation now I feel the chains are shattered the ones that weightened me down can't you see and understand that all becomes more intense slowly to corrode enough of mind control so devoid fill me
