

NOCTURNA, Daughters of the Night

Fire, heir of the Phoenix legacy of Gods
At Night we'll mourn all the things we've lost Bleed from within but free of pain at last again we'll storm beyond the darkened Halls

All things you give they're all that you'll leave behind within their Mind
All days you miss never come back but it's still as it's been

So here we are
The Failure and Damnation of the Light And here we are throughout the Centuries Oblivion
Forgotten Hopes buried in our Hearts
So here we are

In this World without end Under these weeping Skies no traces left of what we used to be A brand new Breed
Daughters of the Night
We're bringing Hell and new Light

Together stuck on what we had been till now Leave it behind
All things we lost
we will rebuild once again
If you're with me
