Nocturnal Rites, Till I Come Alive

Woke up today, no hope for tomorrow What I thought would wash away Needless to say, I'd kind of lost my way So I'm right here, waiting

No more, no more Won't stop trying till I know I'm alive No way, no way No denying till I come alive

I turned on a dime, And counted my blessings So no more wasting time Wiped out the slate, And finally turned the page And I'm right here, waiting

No, thought I still believe in nothing Never crawling, never falling I'll never be like you
