

Noe Venable, Prayer For Beauty

say a prayer for beauty they keep coming to take her apart so many ways I've tried to say it oh my life oh my gods oh my heart

like a ghost at the edge of the world she runs out in her stockings as invisible cities they burn

that she's holding your hand even when you can't see her I think mercy waits to take your hand at least til you can admit that you need her well I need her

and in my hour of darkness when I need you and find you so faraway and it all seems without purpose anything you could dream or could say just say a prayer for beauty
cause I think mercy waits to take your hand at least til you can admit that you need her
the edge
she's out on the edge she's out on the edge of the water
say a prayer for beauty
she's out on the edge
she's out on the edge
forgive her
