

Noe Venable, Tinkerbell

Tinkerbell busts her brains
Bashing into window panes
But who is gonna need a light
In the buggy buzzy neon night?

Tinkerbell takes off her rags
Empties out her saddle bags
And watching all the cracks in the wall rearrange
Tinkerbell is open to a change

"probably time i looked into
Some other things a girl can do
Could sell my body
To light up someone's t.v..."

But something comes through at last
So it doesn't come to that
Luckily a girl lost her ring in the rain
So tinkerbell is dangling down a drain

And there in the sewer she Sees a thing she's never seen
A constellation <---(crossed out) thousands of shiny useless objects
Glimmering
