

Noise Ratchet, Disappear

The skies will shy from my eyes,
Seas lost in blood red fire
And we disappear
You and I

And castles and Kingdoms fall
And castles and Kingdoms fall down.

We will be far away from here
We will be far away

And we disappear home
And we disappear home

Pain remains forever
And sin stains the hands of men deceived.

And castles and Kingdoms fall down.
And castles and Kingdoms fall down.
