Noise Ratchet, End

Our lives are vacant In us again The time its taking we go On and on and on To change what's wrong into real Our suffered scars are healed.

We can get there We can go all the way tonight The journey's long But our hearts are right.

Come follow this Come follow this, follow

We've come a long way, He made it work. Even though we went on On and on and on

Our souls are here And the end is near We can get there We can go
