

Noise Ratchet, From Your Lips

Welcome to this world today,
You're seeing things a different way

This blood is here to save your soul
It takes you down a better road.
His eyes they see into our minds,
And throw away the demons lies

And angels' tears, they cry for you
Angels' tears, they always make things new.

A way to the heart now,
The way to go deep inside.
A way to the heart now
There is something better there.
