NoMeansNo, Sharks In The Gene Pool

First the urine test - now this First the urine test - now this! Why do all the best technology advances Always wind up in the worst possible hands

Through dna analysis
We may one day conquer disease
A "perfect" baby every time
By mapping and manipulating people's genes

Cosmetic surgery before you're born Know in advance what you'll die of Everyone is useful and the same Swimmers bred like horses for olympic teams

Life insurance? be serious! You have to get your genes screened first Toxic chemicals? fumes at work? No sweat! get a gene transplant

Otherwise you'll lose your job do You wanna wind up out in the streets? And raise your children in campgrounds and shelters? And beg to eat

There's too many sharks in the gene pool Too many chewed up bodies on the shore Too many sharks in the gene pool Too many leftovers rotting all around us

First the urine test - now this!
Why do the best technological advances
Keep winding up as...

Uniform hybrid species
For fresh-looking pest-proof food
An apple can sit on the shelf for years
When we irradiate the molecules

But where did the nutrition go? And what's taken it's place? Slipshod tampering with science Out of control factory farm eugenics

Slaughterhouses in lowa Filled with tumor-infested cows Failed experiments hidden 'til sold To your local school lunch program

Grade D, but edible
Our food, our life, our attitude
Suffocating in what we refuse to recycle
Time bombs fester in every town

Billions of dollars spent every year Searching for a cure for cancer Why not spend that money instead To wipe out pollution that causes the cancer

There's too many sharks in the gene pool Too many screw-ups washing on shore Too many sharks in the gene pool Too many preventable accidents among us Meryl Streep... where are you?

Where did american know how go Why do japanese build better stereos Is it 'cos our best minds can't get a job Except when they help make toys for the Pentagon

Germ warfare, more bombs Germ warfare, more bombs Our whole economy's based on fear and death How long can we get away with this?

And we live here

Instead of better health we get a.i.d.s. Instead of nourishment we get steroids The most popular selections at celebrity sperm banks Are sports heroes

Gap widens between the haves and the have-nots Rich and powerful breed only with themselves We all know what happens when too much of this happens The offspring just ain't real bright

How else can you explain
The erosion of talent and the vision thing
To the point where the best that they can come up with
For our future role models and leaders

Are vicious blind machines Like Albert Gore and Dan Quayle Why do the best solutions and advances Get thrown away in the worst possible hands

There's too many sharks in the gene pool Too many carcasses washing on shore Too many sharks in the gene pool Avalanche of toxic guts all around us

We're incompetent as human beings Even worse at playing God

Wrong people
Right place
Ruling class
Gets the only pass
To board the ark
For outer space
In 2001
What about this place?
