

Nomy, Burn the pictures

Hey you believe it or not
But I find you pretty attractive heeey
I guess you dont know how I am
And thats ok cause I dont give a damn thats right
So whats your name
Am I insane
If I call you baby
Right now for the first time
I wanna wake up with you every fucking day
Burn the pictures from yesterday
I thought I loved you but my hate is in the way
This is the hour when I regret
Everything I promised you is not what you will get You're lying next beside me
Breathing silently
My conscience catches up like always killing me
How about people Leaving me alone
Cause every god damn day I try to love them but I feel Im doing wrong
How should I live
This life
Now when I know that I am lost inside of me
How should I live
My life
Now when I know
That I am dead inside
Burn the pictures from yesterday
I thought I loved you but my hate is in the way
This is the hour when I regret
Everything I promised you is not what you will get
