

Nomy, I miss you

I still see you and me and me
You've been gone now to long, to long
But I miss you
There's no one to save me now
I'm standing on the edge and still I wonder how
God I miss you. God I miss you
I'm broken deep inside
Your face in front of me
My heart is open wide
God I miss you ( God I miss you x 3)
God I miss you ( God I miss you x3 )
God I miss you ( God I miss you )
I miss the time when you where here
Now I'm lost in darkest fear and my end is getting near
God I miss you ( God I miss you )
I miss your soul I miss your eyes
You where strong and free from lies
God I miss your lovely eyes
I keep falling to you and me
The edge is gone now
