

Nomy, My religion

how me how, How can I ever change what I am today so God please hear my pray
And how can I ever be what I wanna be Show me how Am I to hatefull to be saved
How can you let me fade
How can you let me die this way
But I love it it keeps me asking about the things wonder
I need it my God is pounding my heart to life, with thunder as you Walk with me when the days are gray as you here my voice when I scream my pray
For the once that is gone
For the once that is born and the once made of hate it's never gonna be to late
For the once that is gone I sing
I gave my life for this
What have I ever missed
So I am what I am and what I wanna be
show me how
Am I to lost to save myself
Or will you hear my pray
So God dont let me die this way
But I love it it keeps me asking about the things wonder
I need it my God is pounding my heart to life, with thunder Yeah you walk with me when dark is near
And you raise me up and you kill my fear
All I need is what I get from you
For the once that is gone
For the Once that is wrong
For the once holding on
