

None More Black, They Got Milkshakes

there's a lack of constant strangers
hey hey

well it's the same old story but a little different it's kind of crazy i was twisted around when it's strangled up in circles too much attention in the middle me is tangled in knots and when it's different I just push it around whoa yeah superseding

I'm out of focus
and I think I'm out of tune
No matter what I do it's never good enough
Just need to focus it
I need to be in tune 1 2 3 4

hey hey

Well my own vision is on the top of the table
??That even split to see shame ?? and I never know which way I must sway
??Only the where it can be teasing ??
Now our headsets censored in movies
While the figures aren't frank Well I'm back back back to the front
??Oh in jail I'll be living??

I'm out of focus
and I think I'm out of tune
No matter what I do it's never good enough
We try to focus it
I need to be in tune
