Nonpoint, Your Signs

Gotta make the list of what is best gotta make the fist and beat against have to leave an impression do you have a suggestion? i'm all out of good ideas the ones you have always put into your ears with all you care to share how did i end up here?

your signs are pointing to nowhere that's exactly where i won't go your signs are pointing to nowhere and no one that i know will ask all you care to show me care to show me gotta make the list of what is best gotta make the fist and beat against have to make this perfectly clear i'm not waiting for one million years for us in general you make the chemical situation i put us in unfamiliar in foreign land your signs are pointing to nowhere that's exactly where i won't go your signs are pointed to nowhere and no one that i know will ask all you care to show me how would you like me where would you like me to be and could you make me worry just a little more the way you look at me confuses me even with you next to me your signs are pointed to nowhere that's exactly where i won't go your signs are pointing to nowhere and no one that i know will ask all that you care to show me your signs your signs (care to show me) your signs care to show me care to show me i won't go
