

Nordafrost, Amok

Just having woken up
I already feel this pressure
Inside my veins and my brain

Like a thousand parasites
Crawling through my bowels
And my blood seems to boils

The early morning air
Her fresh smell makes me sick
Like a fecal putrid stench

Looking around me
Everything I see
Causes claustrophobic disgust...

All you living creatures
How you always stained me
It's enough you'll have to pay

Thunder and lightning
Crashing inside my cerebellum
Beware of me

Oh! What a misanthropic deed
What have I done?
I walk through deep wet red

Satanized, evil I must have been
Who implanted me this hatred?
I'm trembling all force is gone

Damned disgusting and weak
I come to my end
The bang the pain the heat
