

Nordafrost, An Apocalyptic Philosophy

Infernal storms from beyond earth
Sweep away the lightened existence

A life of total darkness will follow
Without hope of seeing the light of positiveness ever again

Lightened souls change into total blackness
Like angels of death convert to satanic demons
Like robbing a maiden's juvenile innocence
Last one on earth joins the realm of eclipse

No sign of resistance

The underground swallows the surface world
The earth unites with the realms up north

A hades of the present times begins its reign up north
Evil spirits meet the human sins : seed fall on fertile soil

Lightened souls change into total blackness
Like angels of death convert to satanic demons
Like robbing a maiden's juvenile innocence
Last one on earth joins the realm of eclipse
