

Nordafrost, Dawn

The black curtains have been drawn aside
Pale light is creating shades of grey
A blurred line separates grey and umber
The air remains immobile

All life's source is already announced
Crimson glow emphasizes a clear horizon
The frozen landscape now presents itself
Hoarfrost is coloured in cold purple

Dawn

As the splendid sphere has risen
Warmth encounters the remained chill of night
Mist floats above forests and plains
Bright light's reflected by moist autumn leaves

No cloud stains the deep blue
Rays of positiveness rouse all beings
The seductive perfume of autumn
Arouses the spirit : A state of euphoria
