

Norm Rejection, Blaster

Acting like a stranger
Stranger than you know
Eyes are looking on you
Ready to tell all

You're Disciplined and Punished
Coz you won't conform
Naked on a spotlight
Punished to perform
You seem to bleed
They just won't feel
You're made insane
Forget your name
Like a midnight lonely roadblock
Like a stripsearch in the light
Like an endless prison sentence
Like a victim with no rights

All eyes are turned upon you
Your a star - in a show
Pity the show makes you twisted
You're stripped up to the bone

You seem to bleed
They just won't feel
You're made insane
Forget your name
This is what you get what you get for doing it
Everything is turned to black
This is what you get what you get for doing it just one move and you're attacked
