

Norma Jean, Back To Hers

How can something so right be so wrong
Why couldn't common sense leave us alone
Is it love or is it loss that pulls us on
Just what do you have I don't have at home

Time has took its toll on us again
We've come all the way from lovers back to friends
Everything we have must be so much
You've gone all the way from my arms back to hers
[ steel ]
Time has took its toll on us again...
We've come all the way from lovers back to friends
