

Norma Jean, What Does A Poor Girl Do

I've stood at weddings and watched the best man smile

When I knew that he loved the bride

Never once did I dream that some poor girl was watchin' and dyin' inside

Now here I stand and I love the groom oh yes I love him and my love is true

Like I said I seen the best man smile but what does a poor girl do

(steel)

Mama dear mama always before you told me what I should do

But you know and I know you can't help me now cause this never happened to you

Now here I stand and I love the groom...
