

Norma Jean, Woman's Gotta Make A Stand

Oh oh woman's gotta make a stand somewhere
There's no happiness to find running here and there
Wanderlust may torture me at times but I don't care
Cause a woman's gotta make a stand somewhere

Foolishly I wasted all my life on the glitter of the grind night life
Afraid they let my heart strings tie me down
But now at last I found someone who'll forgive the wrongs I've done
So I'm gonna put my feet on former ground
Cause a woman's gotta make...

[guitar - el.banjo]

The laughter of the good time crowd jukebox playing much too loud
May sometimes burn within my mind so strong
But with my new love by my side I'm gonna take my stand in life
Cause I know I found the place where I belong
Cause a woman's gotta make...
Yes a woman's gotta make a stand somewhere
